

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

A FIREMAN FALLS SIXTY FEET.

HE SLIPS FROM AN ICE ROOF—TENANTS ESCAPE IN THEIR NIGHT-CLOTHES.

Five families were unceremoniously routed out of the flat building, No. 510 Classon-ave., at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning by a fire. Two previous fires have occurred in the same building within the last five months. Three of the tenants were almost suffocated by smoke and a number escaped in their night-clothes. A woman sleeping on the third floor smelled smoke, and aroused the other people on the same floor. Within five minutes of her discovery, flames were issuing from windows in the building. Messrs. McGill and Hadwell, occupying the first and third floors, discovered flames in the elevator shaft, but were unable to check them. Five engines turned out in response to two alarms and after an hour's work went away. At 8 o'clock, however, a third alarm was sent in, as there was a second outbreak. Henry Brinkman, of Engine No. 9, slipped on the icy roof and fell to the ground, a distance of sixty feet, fracturing his ribs and receiving numerous bruises. He was removed in an ambulance to his home, No. 335 Warren-st. The cause of the fire is unknown.

A NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH ESTABLISHED.

SERVICES HELD FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE POUCH MANSION ON THE HILL.

A new movement began last evening to establish an English Lutheran Church on the Hill. There are more than a score of Lutheran churches in the city, several with large congregations and fine buildings, but the German language is used exclusively in them, save two, St. Matthew's at Clinton and Amity sts., and a small one in the Eastern District. The congregation of St. Matthew's is gathered from all parts of the city, and some of the members have to journey long distances. The pastor, Dr. Thomas T. Everett, believes that the time is ripe for the extension of English Lutheran churches in the city, feeling that the faith held by the denomination is adapted to the times, combining as it does the historic tenets of the great Protestant, Martin Luther, and a liturgy and choral service. He has had much success since he succeeded the Rev. M. W. Hamma in St. Matthew's Church, two years ago. Through the influence of Charles A. Schieren, president of the Brooklyn Young Republican Club, and other members of his church, the Pouch mansion, in Clinton-ave., near Lafayette-ave., has been secured, and services were held in it last evening. Dr. Everett will give the evening service in his downtown church, and will preach at the Pouch mansion, with the purpose, if possible, of organizing a new English Lutheran Church in that part of the city.

The Pouch mansion is the costly house which the late Robert Graves, a millionaire wall-paper manufacturer, was building at the time of his death, and after that it was purchased by A. J. Pouch, of the Standard Oil Company, and is rented for social affairs, lectures and other gatherings. This will be the first time that it has been used on Sunday.

THE BRIDE WAS READY—BUT HE DID NOT COME.

Mary Malanay, thirty-nine years old, of No. 30 Union-ave., married Alfred Kelly, eighteen years old, yesterday before Justice Watson in the Even Street Police Court, with trifling with her affections. Kelly lives at No. 38 South Eighth-st., with his parents. Miss Malanay said she had met Kelly at the Union-ave. "merry-go-round," and he at once had begun to make love to her. When she had spoken to him about the difference in their ages, he had said that it made no difference. She had then consented to marry him and a day had been set for the wedding. Kelly had continued his visits until the day before the ceremony. He promised to be on hand at the proper time the next day. The guests had all assembled, and the minister and the bride had been ready, but Kelly had failed to appear. The guests had then been dismissed. Kelly was held for examination in default of bail.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

The home of Eugene Maxwell, No. 100 Eighth-ave., caught fire early yesterday morning from a defective fuse, and the house was damaged to the extent of $500 before the flames could be extinguished.

While Patrolman Peter Gallagher, of the Third Precinct, was walking in President-st., between Third and Fourth aves., about 2 o'clock yesterday morning he heard two pistol shots fired in rapid succession, which seemed to come from the rear of No. 364 President-st. Going into the back yard, Gallagher met Antonio Pietras running out with a smoking revolver in his hand, and arrested him. Pietras was a rear building, where he was living. Gallagher found Pietras's wife cowering with fear in a back room. She said that she had locked the door of her room and would not open it when her husband knocked. Pietras had then fired two bullets through the door, but they missed the woman. Pietras was intoxicated. He was locked up.

The funeral services of Major James K. Magie, of Washington, took place yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, at No. 90 Rensselaer-st. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Irving of Calvary Episcopal Church. The burial was in Evergreens Cemetery.

Dominico Marston and his brother Joseph, the Italians who attempted to kill Jacob Boehart, a Grand Central employee on the ferryboat Warr-on, of the Grand line, on Saturday night, were arraigned before Justice Goetting yesterday and held for examination.

Peter Drummond, colored, a nurse in the smallpox hospital at Flatbush, was informed yesterday to appear in the Even Street Police Court to answer a charge of abandonment preferred by his wife, who lives at No. 19 Montross-ave. When Mrs. Drummond secured the warrant, the policeman hesitated about serving it, and finally decided to inform him by telephone. Before using the phone he rubbed the receiver with a piece of camphor, so as to avoid infection. Drummond promised to appear in court today, and the court officers and other attacks are much alarmed.

The Rev. Augustus W. Mills, of Boston, who was recently called to the pulpit of the First Reformed Church, Bedford-ave. and Glycer-st., will be installed as pastor to-morrow evening. The services will be conducted by Dr. Denmore and other members of the North Church.

The Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott took as the subject of his discourse yesterday morning at Plymouth Church the life and works of Henry Ward Beecher. Dr. Abbott reviewed the career of Mr. Beecher and discussed the work he had done.

The Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage, the son of Dr. Talmage, occupied the Tabernacle pulpit yesterday morning and evening, and preached to large audiences.

Patrick Meehan, of No. 101 North Seventh-st., while engaged in a quarrel with his brother-in-law, John Reddy, of No. 338 Park-ave., at the latter's home, struck Reddy on the head with a chair and fractured his skull. Reddy was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital, where his condition was said to be critical.

William Ziegler has purchased one-fifth of the stock of "The Brooklyn Eagle," and it is said that it is his intention to secure a majority of the stock. Mr. Ziegler recently purchased twenty shares of the stock of William M. Van Auden, but it is not known what price was paid. At the last annual meeting of the stockholders, held on Friday, Mr. Ziegler made an offer for a controlling interest of the paper. No action was taken.

THEIR AUNT WILL KEEP THE FAMILY BIBLE.

The younger sisters and two brothers of David J. Carey, of No. 218 Eleventh-st., who on last Friday had his aunt, Mrs. William H. Price, of No. 2,093 Third-ave., summoned to the Harlem Police Court, for the purpose of getting possession of the family Bible, were all in court yesterday morning. The judge decided to leave the matter to be settled by a vote of the family. It appears that since the death of their mother, seven years ago, Mrs. Price, the sister of Mrs. Carey, has taken care of David, the oldest, left his aunt's home about a year ago, and since then has tried to get the family Bible. When the question was put to a vote yesterday, David's brothers and sisters decided that their aunt should keep possession of the Bible.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The Charity Hospital Nurses' Association will have a dinner at Clark's restaurant, No. 22 West Twenty-third-st., on Thursday, at 2 p. m. Covers will be laid for forty.

A proposed ordinance has been submitted to the Board of Aldermen by the City Improvement Society, requiring that all cabs, coaches and carriages, at night, and express wagons shall carry at least two lights or lanterns, which can be clearly seen for two lights or lanterns, and that each bicycle or tricycle shall display at least one light. For a failure to comply with the proposed law each transgressor shall be compelled to pay a fine of at least $5.

An interesting missionary conference of Presbyterian Christian Endeavor societies will be held at No. 53 Fifth-ave. to-morrow evening. The Rev. H. T. McEwen, the president of the New-York City Union, will preside, and addresses will be made by the Rev. Dr. D. J. McMillan, secretary of the Board of Home Missions, and Robert Speer, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions.

William Ackerman, an elevator boy, sixteen years old, employed at No. 55 West Forty-second-st., was accidentally caught in the elevator he was running yesterday morning, and the ribs of his left side were crushed. The lad was removed to Bellevue Hospital. He lives with his parents at No. 1,327 Second-ave.

Mary Granger, seventeen years old, of No. 240 West Twenty-ninth-st., on the way to church fell on the crosswalk in Eighth-ave. yesterday and fractured her right ankle. She was taken to the New-York Hospital by an ambulance surgeon.

Patrick McManus, twenty-one years old, living in Brooklyn, was attacked by a stranger yesterday morning at Canastota, and the Bowers, and knocked down. His right leg was broken by the fall. He was sent to Governor Hospital. His assailant was not found.

Professor Charles R. Cross, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will deliver a lecture to-night in Hamilton Hall, Columbia College, under the auspices of the New-York Academy of Sciences, on "Some Points in Acoustics."

SPRING LAMBS HAVE A WINTER GAMBOLE.

Most lambs gambol in the spring, but the cold weather did not prevent the Lambs Club last night from having its monthly frolic. The January gambol of the lambs was as full of fun and frolic as the one of the fall in West Twenty-ninth-st. would allow, and the frost, known as the "Frolic of the Month of Your Life Dinner," added to the good cheer. The dinner was served in the parlors of the club. There were no guests other than club members, no long speeches and no formality. All that good stories and merry jests and a good dinner could do made the affair one of the most enjoyable of the year.

Justice Taintor, of the Yorkville Police Court, yesterday committed George E. Morse, thirty-five years old, of No. 172 West Sixteenth-st., and Stephen H. Flynn, thirty-two years old, of No. 361 Amsterdam-ave., to prison, without bail, to await the result of injuries they inflicted upon William Klott and John May, in front of the liquor store at No. 172 West Sixty-fifth-st. Flynn formerly worked for Maj. On Saturday night he and Morse caused some trouble in the store. A fight followed, during which Klott and May were severely stabbed. Their wounds were attended to by Dr. Golden, of No. 107 West Sixty-third-st.

A BENEFIT FOR THE PRESS CLUB.

When the Press Club came into possession of its Williamst. property last Tuesday it found itself credited with a neat sum on account of the January rents of its new tenants. Among the larger subscriptions needed since January 10 are Thomas F. Ryan $100, General Electric Company $1,000 and Hatt & Bowers $100. Philadelphia Amosson has offered the Press Club Building fund a benefit performance at the Casino next Thursday afternoon.

FOR THE ANNUAL DINNER OF YALE ALUMNI.

The annual dinner of the Yale Alumni of New-York City and its vicinity will be held at Sherry's on January 20. Harvard, Princeton and Columbia will be represented by prominent speakers, and the alumni of Yale College will be represented by Mr. Norton, of Chicago, and Samuel Elder, of Boston. Mr. Elder is president of the Yale Alumni Association of London. Mr. Norton and Mr. Elder have not before spoken at any of the college dinners in New-York, and they are to be the speakers of the evening. Mr. Depew will preside, and Mr. Dwight, president of Yale University, will be present. A double quartet of the Yale Glee Club will lead the singing.

For interior decorative lighting the candelabra, with its soft mellow light, holds the highest place. In supplying the demand we have met with great success. The assortment is unequalled. They vary in height and style and hold from two to seven candles each.

Besides these we show an exceptionally large variety in single Candlesticks arranged with lamp attachment so that they can be used either with lamp or candle. The designs are principally after the antique.

TRIBUNE EXTRAS.

AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES.—The Tribune roll of persons reputed to be worth a million or more has been revised and republished. It gives the names of 4,017 millionaires of the United States, and the lines of business which each one made a fortune. With paper cover, in pamphlet form, the publication will cost 25 cents, postage paid. A subscription edition, on better paper, with flexible cloth covers, will be mailed to any address, in paper box, for $1. Probably 300 changes have been made in the list.

"ORCHARDER."—Our "Orcharder" is a Chaucerian M. Depew, who is certainly acknowledged to be one of the foremost of American orators—brilliant, sparkling, sound and sagacious. His after-dinner speeches are both the models and the despair of his rivals. "Our Orchard" is a poem, by Isaac H. Bromberg, illustrated profusely and comically by Dan Beard and C. D. Gibson, two of the best pen-and-ink artists in New-York City. It is a delicious piece of fun, and it is moreover thoroughly possessed of a spirit of originality and a sense of humor. It is a delightful book. It is doubtful whether Mr. Bromberg has ever done his wit more credit than in these dashing, rollicking and brilliant verses. Retail price, $1 a copy. The book has been offered as a premium to the readers of The Weekly Tribune, and may be obtained by sending 44 pages of the charming "Home and Society" article from The Sunday Tribune. A delightful number.

SHORT TALKS WITH AMERICAN VOTERS.—92-page pamphlet composed entirely of the manuscript articles of Hon. Roswell C. Hoar, written for the Weekly Tribune, on the Tariff and the Currency. This is a perfect mine of information for an aggressive Republican campaign. Every campaign orator should possess a copy. "Protection Not a Tax." "Why a High Tariff Pays." "The Real Doctrine of Protection." "Rich and Poor in America." "Reciprocity." "Money for the People." "Farm Importations Abroad." "The Omaha Platform." "Farm Mortgages" and "Alliance Fiat Money Nonsense," are only a few of the topics treated. 25 cents a copy.

MINIATURE INDUSTRIES.—New. A compilation of striking articles from The Tribune, describing industries which have been established under the beneficent of the McKinley bill. Figures are given showing better wages and lower prices of manufactured goods. 25 cents a copy.

AFTER-DINNER SPEECHES.—A handsome pamphlet of 84 pages, containing the most eloquent and entertaining after-dinner speeches and memorial addresses of the public dinners of the winter of 1891-92 in New-York City. 25 cents a copy.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY, 1892.—The proceedings, reported by the Rev. John B. Fitch, an experienced journalist and Presbyterian clergyman, and revised and enlarged. In pamphlet form. 25 cents a copy.

THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC, 1893.—Incomparably the best manual of the kind published in the United States. It is a reference library by itself. While its three hundred and forty pages the political, general and statistical fields are covered with unusual completeness. Price, 25 cents.

NORTHFIELD, THE EXERCISES AT—New ready, 15 cents a copy.

CHAUTAUQUE IN 1892.—Now ready in a handsome pamphlet of 65 pages. Profusely illustrated. 25 cents a copy.

For other Extras of The Tribune send for circular.
